How will you communicate with Chinese people when you don't even speak the language?

I've been practicing and I'm taking this dictionary with me. If I can't remember a word, I'll look it up.

But you can't read Chinese. How will you know how to get around? If you see a sign, you won't be able to read it.

As I said before, I've been practicing. Besides, I can always show someone in the street where I want to go.
